PREFACE

In presenting the One Hundred and Tenth Edition of the City of Hamilton Directory, we thank our advertisers, subscribers and the community in general for the generous support they have given us.

Once again, postal codes have been included in the street directory (pink section). They are prominently located after each street intersection description and shown in italics.

The Directory includes the names of many persons who are employed in the City but live outside it.

The Population of the Region (1982) 410,582; Hamilton (1981) 307,177.

On January 1, 1974, the City of Hamilton became part of the Regional Municipality of Hamilton-Wentworth, while at the same time retaining its identity as a city in a two-tier system of regional government.

The other members of the Hamilton-Wentworth Region are the Towns of Ancaster, Dundas, Stoney Creek and Glanbrook, and the Township of Flamborough. Residents of these municipalities, together with the residents of the City of Burlington (which is part of the Regional Municipality of Halton), are listed in a separate publication, the Burlington and Hamilton Suburban Directory.

HAMILTON 1983

EXPLANATION

1. The Christian name appearing alone in brackets is the name of spouse.
2. In some cases the designation, widow, has been omitted by request.
3. Names in bold print are those of firms which subscribe to or advertise in this City Directory. Names in capital letters are those of proprietors, partners or executives of these firms.
4. Business firms which are individual proprietorships or partnerships are indicated by listing the names of the owner or partners in brackets: Plaza Groceries (John B. Scott, Wm. Noble). Conversely, a firm name in brackets after an individual's name indicates that he is an owner or partner in the firm.
5. The householder or head of the house (owner or tenant) is indicated by h preceding the street address. Other members of the family, roomers and boarders do not have this designation. To determine whether the householder is owner or tenant, refer to the pink section, where home ownership is indicated by an asterisk (*).
6. The information in this directory has been gathered from original sources and the Publishers have made every effort to ensure completeness and accuracy. They cannot guarantee the complete absence of errors and assume no responsibility therefor. You are requested to draw any inaccuracies to the attention of the Publishers so that corrections may be made in the next edition.
